To Reach Dept. CS, U Tokyo

1. By Train & Bus
   • First you get to Ochanomizu (御茶ノ水) Station, JR Chuo Line (中央線). Stop trains are yellow; rapid ones are orange.
   • No idea how to get there? http://www.jorudan.co.jp/english/norikae/
   • If you’ve taken the Marunouchi line (丸ノ内線) to Ochanomizu Station: see the map below

   • JR Ochanomizu Station has two exits; you take Hijiribashi exit (聖橋口)
     • It looks like this

• You look around and find a bridge. On the bridge there is a bus stop; any bus from there is for U Tokyo.

• The map around Ochanomizu Station

• Just in case, ask around showing the following:
  • 東京大学に行くのですか、このバスで合っておりますか？
  • “I'm going to U Tokyo; is this the right bus?”

• The bus says “学07 東大構内”

• The bus takes you deep into the campus. Get off at the last step (just before a bus rotary), “Todai Konai (東大構内)”. Around 5-10 min bus trip.

• You find a campus map. Our building is “School of Science Bldg. No. 7” or “Faculty of Science Bldg. No. 7”
  • It's in fact next to the bus stop. Brick-covered, 7 floors tall.
• We (Group MMM, aka. Hasuo-Lab.) are on the 4th floor!!

2. If you’re arriving at Tokyo Narita Airport
By train and taxi

- At Narita Airport train station, you take “Keisei Skyliner 京成スカイライナー” to “Keisei-Ueno 京成上野.”
  - Don’t take a JR train (that’s a different train operator)

- Then you take a taxi and go straight to U. Tokyo. Show this to the driver:
  - 東大病院まで行って、その先のロータリーで下ろしてください.
  - “Go to the Univ. Tokyo hospital (a common cab destination), and further to a bus rotary.”
  - The fare is around JPY 1,000, 10 min drive.
